

NORTH CAROLINA APPRAISAL BOARD

CERTIFIED RESIDENTIAL APPLICATION

PUBLISHED BY:
North Carolina Appraisal Board
Effective January 1, 2026

Introduction

This has been prepared and published by the North Carolina Appraisal Board (Board) for the purpose of providing information to interested persons regarding the process and procedures for becoming a Certified Residential real estate appraiser in North Carolina. Although every effort has been made to consolidate into this single publication basic information concerning the major areas of interest to prospective appraiser licensees, some questions may have been left unanswered. Therefore, if you desire more detailed information regarding specific points of concern, you are advised to contact the Board.

This publication is required reading for anyone making application for Certified Residential licensure through examination or reinstatement in North Carolina. READ IT CAREFULLY.

You will notice throughout these instructions that masculine terms have been used to refer to appraisers and applicants. This has been done strictly for the purpose of clarity and is not intended to diminish in any way the prominent role of women in the appraisal industry.

Appraiser Registration, Licensure and Certification

On October 1, 1995, pursuant to legislation enacted by the North Carolina General Assembly, North Carolina appraiser registration/certification became mandatory. Under this legislation it is unlawful to engage in the business of real estate appraisal without first obtaining a registration, license, certificate, or temporary practice permit issued by the Board. The Board administers the appraiser registration, licensure, and certification programs and the Board makes all decisions regarding qualification requirements, applicants' qualifications, and disciplinary matters. The Board also promulgates administrative rules, issues registrations, licenses and certificates, and provides administrative support through its staff.

Use of Title

Certified Residential appraisers must utilize the title "Certified Residential real estate appraiser" when appraising real estate and may identify themselves to the public as holding such title.

Authorized Tasks

The AQB Real Property Appraiser Qualification Criteria states:

- A. The Certified Residential Real Property Appraiser Classification applies to the appraisal of one-to-four residential units without regard to value or complexity.
 1. The classification includes the appraisal of vacant or unimproved land that is utilized for one-to-four residential units, or for which the highest and best use is for one-to-four residential units.
 2. The classification does not include the appraisal of subdivisions for which a development analysis/appraisal is necessary.
- B. All Certified Residential Real Property Appraisers must comply with the COMPETENCY RULE of USPAP.

Application Process

Generally, candidates can expect the entire application review process to take four to six weeks. Factors that affect the processing time are the completeness of the application when submitted and the number and nature of any character issues or questions with respect to fitness for licensure. An individual with a criminal history may petition the Board prior to submitting an application, for predetermination of whether your criminal history may disqualify you from becoming certified.

You cannot hold yourself out as or engage in the business of a Certified Residential appraiser until your certificate has been issued and only during the times that it is in active status.

Application Form

If you wish to become a Certified Residential real estate appraiser, you must complete and submit to the Board an original application. The original application form or a duplicate copy may be used but no altered forms or reformatting of the application will be permitted or accepted. It is recommended that you use the current version of the application form from the Board's website at the time of application.

The application form constitutes a sworn affidavit; therefore, you must sign it before a Notary Public. By signing this application, you are certifying that every statement made in this application is in all respects true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief. You are also acknowledging that making any fraudulent, misleading, or false statements on this application may be grounds to deny your application and could subject you to discipline by the Board if discovered after you are licensed.

You are cautioned to carefully read and follow the instructions on the application form. If you fail to properly complete this form, your application may be returned.

In addition to general biographical information, the application form calls for you to submit:

1. A recent photograph of yourself;
 - Photo must be in color.
 - Photo must be taken within six months of application.
 - Photo must be of head and shoulders and include a clear image of your face.
2. A list of your previous places of residence and employment;
3. Information pertaining to your character and reputation (See "Character");
4. Information pertaining to your appraisal education and/or experience (See "Appraiser Education/Experience"); and
5. The proper application fee (See "Application Fees").

North Carolina Appraisers Act and Appraisal Board Rules

These two items are required reading by every applicant. Every applicant is responsible for this information and as part of the application process you will be asked to answer questions concerning the fact that you have read this information. The most updated version of the Appraisers Act and the Board Rules are available on the Board's website at:

<http://ncappraisalboard.org/rules/NCAppraisers.htm>
and
http://www.ncappraisalboard.org/rules/board_rules.pdf

Application Fee

Your application must include the proper fee. The non-refundable application fee is $200 and must be paid by Certified Check or Money Order made payable to the North Carolina Appraisal Board. The check or money order must be for exactly $200. DO NOT SEND CASH OR PERSONAL CHECKS.

Once your application has been received and processed, your fee will not be refunded UNLESS the Board, in its discretion, determines that you did not affirmatively demonstrate minimum requirements on the face of the application.

Application Filing

In order to schedule yourself for the examination, a properly completed application form and application fee must be received in the Board's office. Board staff will let you know if your application is not complete or if more information is needed (please include your email address on page 1 of the application, as the Board staff may contact you via email). If further information is requested from you and you fail to send the information within 90 days, your application will be voided, and the fee will not be refunded.

Applicants who have completed all requirements for certification between May 1 and June 30 will have two options regarding the issue date of their certification. Upon successful completion of the appropriate examination, these applicants can choose to:

1. have a certification issued to them that will expire June 30 that year which must be renewed by paying a renewal fee before June 30; or
2. request a delay of the issuance and the effective date after July 1 and not be responsible for a renewal fee until the following renewal date.

In making this choice, applicants should remember that they cannot hold themselves out as or engage in the business of a Certified Residential appraiser until their certificate has been issued.

All licenses expire annually on June 30th unless renewed.

Required Appraisal Experience

Experience time is counted from the first logged appraisal through the last logged appraisal. A Registered Trainee must work under a supervisor to receive credit for their experience hours and to comply with state law.

The supervisor must declare the trainee using the Supervisor Declaration form. Receipt of this form must be acknowledged by the Board before a trainee can begin obtaining experience. All certified appraisers who wish to add a trainee to their supervision after January 1, 2015, must have completed the new Supervisor/Trainee course prior to adding a new trainee.

Each of the categories of licensure that allow an appraiser to work independently requires the appraiser to show appropriate appraisal experience before being Licensed Residential, Certified Residential, or Certified General. Each application must have a log that contains enough hours to meet the minimum requirements for the credential being applied for.

Applicants must meet the required experience time. Applicants for Certified Residential must demonstrate experience gained over a minimum period of twelve (12) months. The required experience time begins with the first logged appraisal performed and ends with the last logged appraisal that demonstrates that the minimum time requirement has been met. Experience credit that was not obtained under a valid registration or license will not be counted. Trainees must be associated with their supervisor prior to obtaining creditable experience hours.

The required appraisal experience necessary in order to apply is calculated as actual hours. Actual hours represent the actual or genuine number of hours that the applicant worked on the assignment. Actual hours are obtained by working on appraisal and appraisal review assignments only and are not collected or reported for assignments that do not involve appraisal and appraisal review. Hours may include time spent gathering market information, analyzing data, and preparing the appraisal report, as well as drive time reviewing comparable sales within the market area and commute times of less than 30 minutes roundtrip. Note: Driving or flying long distances to a subject property would not count as experience hours.

Registered Trainees who wish to upgrade to Licensed Residential, Certified Residential or Certified General must, under the supervision of their supervisor, provide significant appraisal assistance or sign the appraisal report in order to obtain experience credit hours.

Verification that the applicant has participated in the assignment is evidenced by: 1) Applicant is noted as providing significant real property appraisal assistance within the report and accompanying certification or 2) Applicant signed the appraisal report. Applicants that have not either signed the appraisal report or applicants that have not been noted as providing significant real property appraisal assistance within the appraisal report and accompanying certification will not receive experience credit hours for the assignment.

The following is a breakdown of the specific requirements.

Applicants for residential certification must have acquired 1,500 hours of experience over a minimum period of twelve (12) months. All qualifying experience must comply with the edition of USPAP in force at the time of the appraisal.

Instructions for Reporting Experience

It is required that all applicants for certification report the required number of hours to include all experience performed for the past two years, or until first having declared a supervisory appraiser even if your experience substantially exceeds the minimum requirement. A log must be submitted for each supervisory appraiser in which you were actively performing appraisal-related work within the past two years. The log must be maintained on a regular basis and in chronological order according to the date of the report. The log must be legible.

The log may be submitted on the Board's approved Experience Log form or may be submitted in some other format as long as all of the content in the Board's approved log form is present. You must have file data to support all experience you report.

Each page of the experience log must be signed by the applicant and the applicant's supervisor for those trainees that are applying to upgrade. Applicants and their supervisors are attesting to the fact that the information that they have signed is true and accurate. Board Rules require the supervisor to examine the trainee's log every 30 days at a minimum.

Instructions for Appraiser Experience Log

Report Date: The date the report was signed and transmitted to the client.

Subject Property Address: Physical address of the subject property must include the city and state. Properties done outside of North Carolina can be included as long as they are USPAP compliant, the applicant was properly licensed or registered in that state, and the applicant and his/her supervisor complied with all regulations in that state.

Report Type: Either Appraisal Report or Restricted Appraisal Report. You may provide the type of form being used; for example, URAR, 1004D, etc. If using demonstration appraisal experience, put DEMO in this field.

Property Type: Provide a brief description of the property type. This can be as simple as "single family residence and lot" or "multi-tenant commercial improvements and site." There are several descriptions of property types outlined below.

Client Name/Your File Number: This box must contain the name of the client for whom the report was prepared. If you have a file numbering system, this number should be included so that we can reference it when requesting work samples. If using demonstration appraisal experience, put NCAB in this field.

Supervisor Accompanied on Inspections Y/N: Enter a "Y" if the supervisor did accompany the trainee on the inspection and enter an "N" if the supervisor did not accompany on the inspection. North Carolina Board rules require that the supervisor accompany the trainee on the first 25 inspections or the first 750 hours of experience, whichever comes first, in which the trainee provided significant appraisal assistance. Applicants that apply with out-of-state experience must ensure that they have complied with the rules and laws pertaining to trainee supervision in the jurisdiction where the experience was obtained.

Grids detailing the assistance provided by the applicant and the supervisor's supervision and review: These grids represent the typical segments of an appraisal assignment. In the AD row, an "x" should be placed in each block that the applicant provided professional assistance. In the SD row, an "x" should be in each box that the supervisor assisted or supervised the applicant's work. In the SR row, an "x" should be placed in each field the supervisor reviewed the applicant's work. If both the supervisor and applicant worked on a segment of the assignment there should be an "x" in each box on the SD row. It is possible for an "x" to be placed in both the SD and SR field when the supervisor not only supervised but also reviewed the applicant's work. If a certain segment is not necessary to provide credible assignment results, and was not prepared, then it should be left blank. Note: The number of "x's" does not determine whether or not an applicant receives credit for the assignment.

It is also permissible for applicants to indicate the number of actual hours they are wishing to request for each segment of the assignment. If the applicant chooses to report their participation in this fashion, they must ensure the actual hours they request for each segment equals the total hours requested for the assignment.

General Hours: The number of hours claimed for general experience for this property. This should be the actual number of hours spent completing the assignment. (Refer to the property types below to determine whether credit should be claimed in the general or residential category)

Residential Hours: The number of hours claimed for residential experience for this property. This should be the actual number of hours spent completing the assignment. (Refer to the property types below to determine whether credit should be claimed in the general or residential category)

NOTE: If you are unable to determine which category for which credit should be claimed, please contact the Board staff at 919-870-4854 or at ncab@ncab.org.

Hours Requested: The total number of general and residential hours must be totaled for each page along with the cumulative total. This will assist the Board staff in determining whether you have achieved the appropriate number of experience hours. Remember, you request to claim the actual hours spent completing the assignment. Applicants should round their actual hours to the nearest quarter hour when necessary.

Applicants are responsible for providing sufficient evidence to substantiate the number of actual experience hours they request for an assignment. An applicant must be able to substantiate the number of hours spent on an assignment.

Acceptable Experience

All qualifying experience must have been obtained by performing (or reviewing) appraisals using appraisal methods and processes that are commonly employed by real estate appraisers. Additionally, all qualifying experience must comply with the edition of USPAP in force at the time of the appraisal.

You may receive experience credit as described below for appraisals, including demonstration appraisals, and review appraisals.

Appraisals: An appraisal is the process of developing an appraisal using those methods commonly accepted by real estate appraisers as constituting the appraisal process and preparing a written appraisal report or file memorandum describing the appraisal and reporting the estimate of value. If you performed significant assistance with an appraisal (including a field inspection and preparation of the appraisal report) or sign the appraisal report you will receive full credit for that appraisal.

Review Appraisals: A review appraisal is the process of critically reviewing an appraisal report prepared by another appraiser and preparing a separate written report setting forth the results of the review process. Basically, the review appraiser reviews the report and forms an opinion as to the adequacy of the report, the appropriateness of the methods used by the appraiser, and the reasonableness of the appraiser's conclusions. A review appraiser may or may not perform a "field review." A review appraiser does NOT sign the appraisal report being reviewed and, therefore, does NOT assume full responsibility for such report. All review appraisals submitted for experience credit must conform to Standard 3 and 4 of USPAP. You will NOT receive credit for a review of an appraisal which you originally performed.

Demonstration Appraisals: A demonstration appraisal is an appraisal performed without a client. The subject and all data used must be real, verifiable data and not fictional. Review reports are not permitted as demonstration appraisals. Demonstration appraisals done by a Registered Trainee must be signed and supervised by their declared supervisor.

Unacceptable Experience

You will NOT receive any credit toward satisfying the experience (or education) requirement for performing:

1. Market value estimates as a real estate licensee in connection with the listing and/or sale of real estate (i.e., a "comparative/competitive market analysis" or "BPO").
2. Mass appraisals of real estate for ad valorem tax purposes. (NOTE: Credit may be given for appraisals of individual parcels of real estate for ad valorem tax purposes that are compliant with USPAP Standards 1 and 2.)
3. Business appraisals. (NOTE: Credit may be given for appraisals of individual parcels of commercial real estate.)
4. Personal property appraisals.
5. A feasibility or market analysis, except to the extent that the "market value" of a proposed real estate project is being estimated.
6. Supervision of trainees.
7. An appraisal prepared in a manner that violates the North Carolina Appraisers Act, any other Statute, Board Rules, or USPAP.

8. Assignments that are cancelled and no report is submitted to the client.
9. Reports in which more than one person is listed as providing significant assistance or where multiple trainees signed the report.

Documentation/Verification of Experience

File data, including copies of written appraisal reports supporting your experience claim, should not be submitted with your application; however, you may be asked by the Board to verify your claimed experience even after you are certified. As part of the application process, you will be asked to provide a minimum of five appraisal reports with two containing a complete workfile to the Board. Board staff will select the appraisals from your log and will notify you by email to send those to the Board office. Applicants should send copies only as these materials will not be returned. Applicants may also provide electronic copies to the Board staff. You will receive directions on how best to deliver the documentation after the Board staff has evaluated your experience.

Once your work samples have been reviewed/accepted, an approval form will be emailed to you for the purpose of scheduling your examination with Pearson Professional Assessments. The approval form is valid for 24 months from the date of issuance and exam attempts must be scheduled at least 30 days apart. The cost of the exam will be set and collected by Pearson Professional Assessments.

Please send your test results to the Board via mail, email, or fax. Failure to submit your passing exam results within 90 days of the expiration of your exam ticket will result in your application being cancelled. Cancelled applications, including course completion certificates and experience logs, will be retained at the Board office for 24 months before being destroyed in a secure manner.

Character

Applicants for certification have the burden of proving that they are of good character and entitled to the high regard and confidence of the public.

In its evaluation, the Board considers the information that you provide in the application process regarding your character. In the event the information is not adequate for determination, the Board may request additional references or information from you and/or conduct its own investigation.

To enable the Board to render its decision at the earliest possible time, you should submit with your application all the information required in the "Character" section of the application form.

All applicants shall obtain criminal record reports from DISA/Castle Branch*. The package code is NG97. Applicants are required to pay the designated reporting service for the cost of these reports. Applicants are required to submit the completed final report with their application. This records check must be completed within 60 days of the date the completed application is received by the Board. In addition, the Board may investigate and consider whether you have had any disciplinary action taken against any other professional license in North Carolina or any other state or whether you have been convicted of or pleaded guilty to any criminal act. If the results of the investigation are satisfactory to the Board, and you are otherwise qualified, then the Board will grant the application and issue your appraiser certification.

In considering an applicant's criminal history the Board may consider the following:

1. The level and seriousness of the crime.
2. The date of the crime.
3. The age of the person at the time of the crime.
4. The circumstances surrounding the commission of the crime, if known.
5. The nexus between the criminal conduct and the prospective duties of the applicant as a licensee.
6. The prison, jail, probation, parole, rehabilitation, and employment records of the applicant since the date the crime was committed.
7. The completion of, or active participation in, rehabilitative drug or alcohol treatment.
8. A Certificate of Relief granted pursuant to G.S. 15A-173.2.
9. The subsequent commission of a crime by the applicant.
10. Any affidavits or other written documents, including character references.

If based upon information obtained from the application and/or from the Board's inquiry it appears that you may not possess the requisite character for certification, then action on your application will be deferred.

If your application is deferred, you may request a hearing before the Board to present additional evidence regarding your character and record. Following the hearing, if the Board denies your application based on your criminal history, the Board will make written findings specifying the factors that the Board deemed relevant and explaining the reasons for the denial. In the event the application is not approved following the hearing, pursuant to Chapter 150B-45 of the NC General Statutes, you may appeal the Board's decision to Superior Court within 30 days of receipt of the Board's decision.

*If the applicant has had a background check performed within the past 60 days and it complies with the requirements in 57A .0202, the applicant may send in a copy of that criminal record report. If the applicant sends a criminal report check from another entity that is not equivalent to the one performed by DISA/Castle Branch, the applicant will be required to obtain a criminal record report from DISA/Castle Branch as noted above.

Note that if there is a pending criminal charge or investigation pending against any professional license, your application will be tabled until the charges are resolved.

Issuance and Display of Appraiser Certificate

After you have filed a properly completed application, passed your examination, and satisfied to the Board that you are of good character (See "Character"), you will be deemed qualified for certification. You will then be sent your appraiser certificate at the address shown on your application form.

It is unlawful for you to act or hold yourself out as a Certified Residential Appraiser before your certificate has been issued by the Board.

Your certificate must be prominently displayed in the office(s) at which you do business.

National Appraiser Registry

Certified Residential appraisers are qualified for enrollment on the National Registry. If you wish to be enrolled, you may pay to join under the licensee login section on the Board's website. You must be enrolled on the National Registry to prepare reports for federally related transactions. Note: Failure to join the National Registry will prevent an appraiser from performing appraisals on Federally Related Transactions in North Carolina, even if you are registered in other states, and a stamp will be affixed to your license indicating you are ineligible to perform Federally Related Transactions.

Late Renewal/Reinstatement

Your certification will expire on June 30 following the date of issuance unless you meet the current continuing education requirements and renew your license.

In the event you fail to renew your certification, you may late renew by paying the renewal fee and the $10 per month late fee within the first twelve months of expiration. (Note: renewals between twelve months and five years after expiration of your license, will require the filing of the Application for Reinstatement.) Continuing education equivalent to that which would have been required had your license been continually renewed must also have been completed. This includes the most recent 7-Hour USPAP Continuing Education course.

After your certification has expired for five years, you must reapply and meet all the criteria for new applicants.

If you are found to have engaged in the business of real estate appraisal in North Carolina during the time your certificate was expired, you may be found in violation of the NC Appraisers Act.
